

LOCAL.

COUNCIL meeting to-morrow night.
E. BROUSSARD, of St. Albert, was in town to-day.

No telegraphic news to-day, both lines being out of order.

The cold weather has moderated considerably since Saturday.

The new school board will meet for the first time on Tuesday Feb. 4th.

MESSRS. BAKER and Hamilton intend strating back for Peace River to-morrow morning.

The Thistle hockey club plays the Stars here on Thursday, and Shamrocks on the south side on Friday next.

NARCISSE BRADY, trader from river Oil Barre, was in town on Friday with fur which he sold to H. S. Young for $83.50.

In a recent issue of the BULLETIN mention was made of the death of J. G. Turfiff, of Alameda, N. W. T. It should have read W. A. Turfiff.

The C. P. R. telegraph-line has been down between Wetaskiwin and Red Deer since last Thursday, and the government line is down to-day.

The following shipments went out by last train: One way car, one car of stock to Owens of Calgary, and one car of coal from Otokwas to Calgary.

H. SIGLER, of the firm of Sigler & Crista, came in from Cold lake, where he has been trading for fur, last week. His lot of fur amounting to $300 was sold to R. Secord.

The Edmonton curling club has received an invitation to attend a bonspiel at Calgary commencing on Feb. 15th. The club has not yet decided whether representatives will be sent down or not.

TRIBUTE, Calgary: The Fire Brigade Hockey Club have decided to accept the invitation of the Edmonton Hockey Club to play a series of three games at Edmonton about the middle of February.

The Calgary Herald has issued, as a supplement, copies of the Canadian Almanac, reprinted chiefly from Toronto Saturday Night. The matter is interesting and the illustrations numerous.

J. TORCH, of Long lake, was in town to-day. He says the excessive cold weather of the past three weeks has been a drawback in fattening his pigs, but he has twenty five for market and intends to dispose of them this week.

REV. MR. ATKINSON, of South Edmonton, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, Edmonton, yesterday at both morning and evening services. Rev. Mr. McQueen being away holding communion services at Rabbit Hills and Colchester.

NASBY'S MAGAZINE is the name of a neat and creditable ten cent monthly issued from the Massey Press, Toronto, Ont. Its literary matter and illustrations are very good. As there is money behind this venture, it will probably achieve the success it deserves.

On Friday afternoon J. Lagrandeur was driving his train of dogs on Jasper Avenue. One of the dogs acting disobediently, Lagrandeur tied him up to a post in front of Larue & Picard's store and beat him unmercifully, until stopped by the interference of citizens, who saw it. Such acts of cruelty should receive the attention of the authorities and the offenders should be made an example of.

T. A. BRICK, of Peace River, who is in town reports a total failure of the grain crop in that district last season, but the vegetables were a very good crop, particularly the potatoes. When he went home in the latter part of July last, he found his grain only nine inches high owing to the excessively dry weather. After that they had plenty of rain, but the grain crop was so late that the frost caught it before it ripened.

G. DESJARLAIS started for Lesser Slave lake with supplies for his trading post on Friday last. Besides leading his four dog trains he employed Mr. Hamilton with his team to take a load as far as the Landing, from which place he will freight the goods in by dog trains. His trade this winter has been much larger than usual, making it necessary to get in extra supplies at the present time.

The Winnipeg Tribune in a recent issue published a verbatim report of Mr. Dean's sermon on the school question, which he preached in reply to the utterances of Archbishop Langevin, together with an editorial commenting on it; and last week's issue of the Northwest Review, the Catholic organ of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, honors Mr. Dean with a three column reply to his sermon. The reply is divided into paragraphs, each numbered consecutively from 1 to 17.

EDMONTON CREAMERY COMPANY.

At the annual meeting of the Edmonton creamery company held on Saturday afternoon last the secretary-treasurer and the auditor made their report showing that the company had lost money during the past season. As is frequently the case when such a condition exists in a joint stock company, the stockholders started in by trying to attach the blame to others besides themselves, and a great deal of sharpshooting was indulged in, but after considerable wind had been expended, the meeting settled down to business. The stockholders decided to go on with the company, and the following directors were elected: J. KENNEDY, A. HITCHINGS, W. J. BARRIE, Alex. McLeod, H. BORGWARDT, R. RITCHIE, J. GAINER and R. McKERNAN, the last three being new ones. It was found that if the stockholders had paid up their calls promptly when they were made, the company would have been in a much better position to-day. Up to date the calls already made are 70% on the old stockholders and 50% on those who came in last year, and a large proportion of these calls have not yet been paid. If the calls were paid up to 70% in all probability some person could be found to take the creamery off their hands, if the stockholders wished to dispose of it. C. M. Woodworth has been appointed to collect the calls already levied.

THERE will be a meeting of the C. M. B. A. to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, in their hall.

A hockey match was played on Friday afternoon between the school boys and the juniors. The boys playing seven on their side to five on the juniors, resulting in an easy victory for the boys. The game was divided into three parts of twenty minutes each. In the first 20 minutes the school boys got two goals to the juniors none. In the second 20 minutes the school boys got one goal and the juniors two, and in the third each side obtained two goals each, leaving the result of the game five goals to four in favor of the school boys. The school boys put up a good game from the first, all playing remarkably well, especially Bellamy, Coriveau and Dean. The following were the players: School boys, Bellamy, Coriveau, McLeod, Dean, Goodridge, Richardson, Bush, Juniors, J. Gainer, Lauder, Robertson, Cameron and Young.

SHOOTING MATCH.

AFTER the hockey match was concluded on Saturday afternoon five members of the Edmonton rifle association and five of the N. W. M. Police from the Fort, had a friendly match with the Morris tubes, at the range, in connection with the rink, resulting in a victory for the home team by a score of 117 to 102. Owing to the short time between the close of the hockey match and the arrival of the dinner-hour they only fired five rounds each at the 200 yards range. The following is the score:

Leroy,	2 4 5 4-19
Butler,	4 5 5 4-23
Baker,	4 5 5 4-22
McLaren,	4 5 4 4-22
Blythe,	4 0 2 5-16
	102

EDMONTON.

Turnbull,	3 4 5 5-23
McCauley,	5 5 5 5-25
Looby,	5 5 5 4-24
Carpenter,	4 5 5 4-23
Pearce,	5 4 4 4-22
	117

CURLING.

In the games for the Hardisty cup the following are the names of the members composing the different rinks with the results of the first draw:

1. West,	2. McLeod,
Satter,	Emery,
Thurston,	Douglas,
Looby, skip-12.	McQueen, skip-10
3. Ball,	4. McKeniz,
Jackson,	Oliver,
McCauley,	Raymer,
Vance, skip-10.	McDonald, skip-11.
5. Kinnaird,	6. McNicol,
Picard,	McNeill,
Wilson,	Shera,
Taylor, skip-4.	Snyder, skip-14.
7. Short,	8. Robertson,
de Roux,	Ormsby,
Stewart,	Thibault,
McKay, skip-8.	Lauder, skip-17.

In the second draw Looby's rink plays against McDonald's and Snyder's against Lauder's. The members will start playing singles for the McDonald cup this week, and arrangements are now being made for the Merchants' match which will start at an early day.

In the second draw McDonald's rink defeated Looby's by a score of 10 to 9, and Lauder won from Snyder by 14 to 10. Both games were closely contested, especially that between McDonald and Looby, in which the rinks were a tie when the last was commenced. The third and last draw will be played off this evening between the rinks skipped by Jas. McDonald and T. G. Lauder and an exciting contest may be expected.

HOCKEY.

The match between the Police, of Fort Saskatchewan, and the Thistles, of Edmonton, last Saturday afternoon was the most exciting game ever played in Edmonton. Each side had won one game this winter, and they started the game Saturday on an equal footing. Owing to the non-arrival of Brown, of the Fort team, the Edmonton team dropped A. G. Harrison, and each side went on the ice with six men instead of seven. The play was very fast from the start, and the puck was moved from one end of the ice to the other at a rapid rate. First one goal was in jeopardy, and then the other, neither side appearing to have the advantage, until just as the whistle was about to sound for one-third time, the puck was shot through the Edmonton goal by Dyer, of the Fort team. Time, 20 minutes. On the game being resumed the play was continued faster than before, and for another 20 minutes the excitement was intense. First one side appeared to have the advantage, and then their opponents seemed to have the best of it, until, two-thirds time being, neither party had further scored, although the puck was frequently dangerously near the goal at either end; and the second third of the game terminated without any change, the Police still leading by one goal. In the last third of the game the Thistles played harder than ever, and during this part of the game the puck was kept more in the vicinity of the Fort's goal, but, despite the determined efforts of the home team, they were unable to score, thus leaving the victory in the hands of the visitors by the one goal scored in the first third of the game. Although the game was so sharply contested, one noticeable feature was the absence of unnecessary roughness, but the spectators could not help seeing that, whenever the players got into a tussle, the visitors were too heavy for our boys. To show how uncertain the game was, and what the gain or loss of a few seconds would do, we might say that less than two seconds more play before scoring would have lost the goal won by the Fort team, and half a second more time would have given a goal to the home team. Just as the game closed Grieron had made a winning shot, and the puck was in the air when the whistle blew for time, but had not reached the goal, and so was not given to them. The following are the names of the players: Police: Goal, Butler; point, McLaren; cover point, Baker; forwards, Dyer, Lamb, and Blythe. Thistles: Goal, Fiater; point, Cartier; cover point, J. D. Harrison; forwards, Henry, Robertson and Grieron. In the evening the visitors were entertained by the home team at the Alberta hotel, spending a few hours very enjoyably before they started for home.

EMIGRATION.

The following clipping from an Ontario paper of a recent date, although evidently an advertisement, appeared as reading matter:

"Irrigation in Dakota is causing that much maligned section of the western country to blossom like the rose. Quoting from a published article on the subject, it is said that 'Men who are accustomed to farming in non-irrigated districts are slow to believe the reports of enormous yields of all kinds of farm products in those sections of the country where irrigation is practised.' An irrigated 40-acre farm produces greater and better results than a 640-acre farm cultivated in the ordinary way. In a few weeks we hope to be able to publish various items from different individuals, giving their personal experience in irrigation farming. In the meantime send for a free copy of an illustrated pamphlet in reference to irrigation in Dakota, published by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Co. Address A. J. Taylor, Canadian Passenger agent, Toronto, Ont."

It shows clearly that active agencies are still at work in Eastern Canada to draw Canadians to the States. And the fact that these agencies are still in existence proves that they are more or less successful in their work. If they had been totally unsuccessful during the past years they would have been discontinued. These agencies are kept up by the several railway companies interested in the lands of the States that are advertised. They are not paid for by the government of the United States or by that of any single state. They are supported as a purely business enterprise by the railway companies; who would not support them a minute longer than it was proven that they were paying, or likely to pay, in the near future. Numbers of such agencies have been conducted in Canada for many years and they have unquestionably produced profitable results to the railway companies who supported them; or in other words they have unquestionably produced the means of drawing from Canada to the States a large number of well-to-do Canadian farmers to settle on land in the States. If Canada had no Northwest it might be said that this movement of farmers could not be stopped. That it was a natural overflow and could not be prevented. But Canada has the Northwest, and the chief purpose of Canada in acquiring these Territories was to provide a western immigration field within Canada to which the surplus or overflow population of the eastern provinces could be directed. Somehow or other that idea dropped out of sight and has been out of sight for many years past. It has been the fashion to deny that Eastern Canadian farmers went to the States; while at the same time it has been the fashion to create the impression that Manitoba and the Northwest were being filled up from the States and from Europe. The fact is that after all the vigorous immigration policy of the past years in Europe and the United States the vast majority of the people of Manitoba and the Territories are originally from Eastern Canada. The case then is that while Western Canada receives more people from Eastern Canada than from any other part of the world, the efforts of the government are entirely directed towards getting settlers from those other parts; ignoring entirely the possibilities and advantages of immigration from Eastern Canada and as completely ignoring the fact that of the total overflow of population there only a small proportion comes to Manitoba and the Northwest, while the most active agencies are constantly at work to attract possible Northwest immigrants to the States. For years it has been a part of the declared policy of the interior department not to promote the movement of people from one part of the Dominion to another. This may sound very well, and may appear to be in the interest of real estate speculators and land sharks generally in the east. But inasmuch as it has been ineffective to keep up the price of either farm or city property there and has been most effective in deterring the material prosperity of the Northwest, it is surely high time to abandon it. There is no doubt that every legitimate interest of the east is to be advanced by the removal of the overcrowded surplus population of the east to the wider opportunities of the West. How is the market of the manufacturers and dealers of the east to be increased, except by the development of the Northwest? Every additional western settler means an increased market for eastern goods and an additional contributor towards the national burdens. Is it not of advantage to every eastern interest that the man who farms 20 acres in Ontario should farm 200 in Manitoba or the Territories. The wealth of the country is increased by the difference between the 20 and the 200, and the purchasing and consuming power of the farmer is increased by like amount, as it could not be by any other means; and as it certainly would not be by the removal of the 20 acre eastern farmer to the States.

British people generally will be glad to hear of the generous treatment by the Boers of Dr. Jameson and the officers and men of his unfortunate expedition. In the first place it is highly creditable to the Boers, who certainly would have been legally justified in hanging at least the officers of Jameson's force; and in the next place it removes an awkward difficulty from the path of the British government. No one doubts that Jameson was in the wrong according to all principles of international or any other law; but at the same time himself and men are regarded as heroes throughout the British world. It is hard enough for British pride to have to hear the sting of defeat and heavy losses in fair fight of Jameson's raiders, but had the extreme penalty been enforced on the survivors there is very little doubt that all bounds would have been burst and the German emperor would already have had the opportunity to make good his promises of protection to the Boers. It may be that President Krueger realized that Jameson and his men were worth a great deal more to him alive than dead, when the matter of an indemnity for the invasion came to be arranged, Britain will naturally not be unwilling to pay a good round price for the lives and liberty of the survivors of the force who, whatever their mistakes, fought like men and died like heroes for the glory of Britain and the expansion of her empire.

Not the least peculiar feature of the late unpleasantness as touching British affairs has been that the cable news from England published by Canadian papers has been almost entirely what was in the first place compiled for the United States papers, which after being received by them, was sent on to the Canadian papers. As a consequence the Canadian papers have dishied up to the Canadian people the most unfavorable aspect of the news as it affected Imperial and therefore Canadian interests. That this should be the case is most discreditable to the enterprise of our leading Canadian papers. Under existing circumstances it has become an actual necessity that British news should reach Canada without having been specially cooked to suit the anti-British element in the United States. What we want in Canada is the facts whether good or bad—not the facts distorted to suit a hostile public opinion. Why cannot the leading Canadian papers form a syndicate and get full cable reports direct?

There is strong competition between Mr. Martin and Mr. Davin as to which shall prove himself the true friend of the Northwest. Both gentlemen have given notice of bills to amend the Northwest representation act put through at a former session by Mr. Daly; under whose provisions the returning officer makes up the voters' lists according to his own sweet will without let or hindrance from anyone, and only permits those whose names appear on the peculiarly compiled lists to vote. Mr. Daly defended the provisions of this extraordinary disfranchising act on the ground that as the bill did not provide for the appointment of returning officers favorable to the government, it was as fair for one side as for the other. It remains to be seen how far Messrs. Martin and Davin can impress the sense of its unfairness on the present house, and also whether Mr. Davin's bill is really intended to amend the law or to block the amending propositions of Mr. Martin's bill.

In the present session of parliament completes its business the present constituency of Alberta will no doubt be given additional representation, and the reported line of division somewhere near Innisfail, will be generally approved of. The BULLETIN believes that a fairer division according to physical features and population would be on a line somewhere south of Olds, but perhaps as the business interests of the people of that district draw them directly to Calgary, they would prefer to be in the division of which Calgary would be the centre of influence. As the dividing line is certain to be somewhere about Olds or Innisfail it would be well for the people of that vicinity to declare their preference for the northern or southern district. Once the government has decided to make the division its principal purpose will necessarily be to satisfy all interests concerned.

THE Mail and Empire, of recent issues, has been forging rapidly to the front as the leading comic paper of Canada, particularly in its comments on political affairs. The manner in which it calls upon all true patriots to defend the country from corruption, disloyalty and incompetence by supporting the aggregation of acrobats now holding office in Ottawa is supremely funny. The Mail's arguments are based on the supposition that the people are fools. To borrow an old saying: It is possible to fool all the people part of the time, or part of the people all the time, but the recent bye-elections have shown that notwithstanding the efforts of the Mail-Empire, and its funny men at Ottawa, it is impossible to fool all the people all the time.

C. GALLAGHER.

PARLIAMENT.

Mr. McMillan, liberal member for East Huron, has given notice of motion that he will move at an early date, that, whereas, the United States government offers to admit free of duty agricultural implements to any country admitting such entries from the United States duty free, it would be in the interest of both the Canadian agriculturists and Canadian manufacturers that Canada should accept the offer.

McNeill, the leader of the Imperial Federationists, in a few days will move that it would be to the advantage of Canada and the empire as a whole that a small duty irrespective of existing tariffs be levied by each section of the empire against foreign products imported by them and that the money derived from such duties be devoted to purposes of British inter-communication and defence.

"That is spoiling the Egyptians with a vengeance," said Hon. Wilfred Laurier, the liberal leader, when shown McNeill's motion. "The liberals can not support that. We believe in tariff for revenue and we don't care where the tariff comes from. To ask our people to buy inferior goods or else to contribute to a war fund is a distinct interference with the liberty of the subject. The people of Canada, I am sure, will aid the mother country with money and men whenever necessary.
But they don't want a McNeill to them how to do it. The government will not support McNeill's resolution either."

In the commons Mr. McGillivray, during his speech as seconder to the motion for the adoption of the address, referred in eulogistic terms to the efficiency of the police, and said the force was a credit to Canada and would be a credit to any country. In his reply Hon. Mr. Laurier endorsed the expressions of Mr. McGillivray in this connection, and added that he had returned from the Northwest with the full conviction that the police were not only a fine body of men, but that their service to the country was worth all the money that had been expended on them.

JAMESON'S FIGHT.

The New York World prints the following: Capetown, Jan. 18.— Captain Thatcher, a traveller known in the United States, who has served seven years in India, and was with Jameson's column from its start until its surrender, but escaped capture, has arrived in Capetown. "The column started," he says, "on Sunday afternoon. We were six hundred strong.
Besides, there were one hundred officers.
There were three wagons, eight Maxim and three Whitworth guns. We knew what we were going to do. It is all rubbish about our thinking we were going to fight natives. We were hotly engaged on all sides with 4,000 entrenched men, but had no covering ourselves. The wounded were dragged along in wagons. All were in the open, at the mercy of the Boers. It was bitterly cold; our hands were benumied. The odds were ten to one against us. Our men were cursing Johannesburg. Cries for water went up on every side. The sufferings for the wounded were dreadful. Not an enemy was in sight. All the fighting was done from ambush. The situation was hopeless. We could only stand and be shot down. The Jameson party's flag of truce went up. It was on old shirt. The Boers continued to fire for another ten minutes. The Pretoria artillery arrived and opened fire. Our Maxims could have knocked the spots off of them, but we had no ammunition.
At first we thought the guns were the artillery of our cities. Thank God, 'the Rand fellows at last,' was the cry that went up. Our hopes were crest lived. The firing stopped. The Boers rushed upon us from every direction.
They gave us food, for lack of which we were nearly dead. We counted on support from the Rand. There was no other column, and we realized that we had no official support. The first shot fired was by the Boers, on Tuesday night. We were twenty miles from Krugersdorp. It came from about 600 yards' range. We replied with the Maxims, and they cleared out. We fought on yuffs of smoke. The Boers were ambushed and we could not get at them. On Wednesday evening a thousand Boers appeared on a ridge in open order, 2,000 yards long. Concealed Boers continued firing from every direction. We could not charge, but when the Boers vanished under the fire of our guns, we followed them. We were compelled to retreat. We were under a hot fire all night. We lagged and slept in the saddle. We were all played out. Only one chance remained—to push through the Boer lines, at any cost, and escape. At the dawn of Thursday, we were fired at heavily from the village of Tuter. My horse was shot from under me. Horses and men were falling on all sides of the hill where we stood. Jameson asked if our lives would be spared if we surrendered. "Yes," the Boer leader replied.

"The lives of the men will be spared, but not yours." "Never mind me," cried Jameson, "surrender." I escaped by representing myself as a Times correspondent. They let me go. The others they took to Johannesburg. The Boer losses have been ridiculously under stated. They must have lost at least 100 men.

DISLIKE OF ENGLAND.

Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer and British M. P., has written on the subject of the feeling in the United States against Great Britain, giving the information which he gathered during a recent visit to the States. He had remarked on the general dislike of England and asked in cause. He says: "They replied that the dislike to England was provoked by many things and was of such long standing that nothing but war would satisfy the majority of the Americans.
I gathered that our presence on American soil was a danger because, among other things, we proposed to utilise the Canadian Pacific Railway for the transport of imperial troops across the Canadian Dominion in any war we should have with a foreign power! 'Now,' said they, 'that foreign power might be Russia, with whom we might be at peace. Do you suppose that we should allow American soil to be used for hostile purposes against a friendly nation? What have we to do with your foreign wars? The sooner you understand that it could not be permitted, the better for you, if you value our friendship.' Then I gathered that the supercilious spirit we displayed upon all occasions, whether at boat or yacht races, football or cricket matches; our faith in the supremacy of our navy, our commercial superiority, our opinions on monetary matters, our criticism of American authors and journalism, our conduct towards American individuals, and even the capture of American business, all contributed to prove our national unfriendliness, despite our professions of friendship in after-dinner speeches. I heard no word about Ireland or Irish influence, but it seemed to be true American spirit that was aroused now in deep, dead earnest."

RED DEER.

Judge Rouleau left here for Calgary on Tuesday's train, having finished the special term of court, which was held for the purpose of trying George Brewster for cattle stealing. The cattle which were alleged to have been stolen, belonged to Robert Page, of Devil's Pine lake, and amounted to between 40 and 50 head. These cattle were supposed to have been driven off by George Brewster, and sold as beef at Lacombe and Banff by his brother, John, but the defence claimed that they were sold to George Brewster by Page, and delivered by him. The large number of witnesses examined caused the case to last six days. When the jury returned the foreman stated that they were unable to agree upon a verdict, and it is understood that they stood five to one for conviction. Brewster has been released on bail and bound over to appear at the February term of court at Red Deer.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Hamilton Spectator, (conservative), reproduces the article from the conservative Toronto World on the "jolly" policy of the Dominion government. After speaking approvingly of the article, which it says is from the pen of W. F. MacLean, M.
P., it says the situation is this: If the government insists on remedial legislation, and the government supporters in Ontario save the government by voting for it, they will most surely lose their own seats at the general election and the party thus be defeated. If the government presses remedial legislation and is defeated in the house the party will be forced to go to the country as the champion of coercion which would lead to certain destruction. There are two ways out; first, drop remedial legislation and appoint a commission and second reconstruction.

Winnipeg Commercial Jan. 20: Prices of oats in foreign markets are too low to permit of export shipments, but a few cars are going to points east in Canada, where prices are above an export basis. At Manitoba country points, for shipment east cars are worth from eleven to thirteen as to quality and freight rate. In the Winnipeg market dealers are paying 15 to 16c for farmers loads, per bushel of thirty four pounds. Car lots of barley at Manitoba country points quoted at 14 to 16c as to quality and freight rates for from feed grade up to No. three.
Scarcely any moving and very little demand.

The Commercial says that "The wheat trade has reached an interesting point by the filling up of elevator space at our Lake Superior ports. Lower prices are feared on this account. It quotes wheat at country points at 30c to 40c for No. 1 hard. There is six million bushels of wheat in store in Manitoba and on Lake Superior at present, nearly twice as much as this time last year.
